PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Final-year Computer Science Engineering student at Parul University (CGPA: 6.92/10) with hands-on experience building AI-integrated web applications. Independently designed and delivered the complete React.js frontend for DEPS — a Digital Passenger Entry System with AI — while progressing on backend development. Certified in Python (TeluguWebGuru, 2025) and holder of a government-issued technical certificate. A disciplined self-starter seeking to contribute in a professional software team from day one.
